

Bachelor of Science in Public Administration Degree and Certificate Programs

The Bachelor of Science in Public Administration degree or certificate program is designed to meet the educational needs of government employees engaged in the field of public administration, or anyone whose professional goals include careers in the public and non-profit sectors. The curriculum combines theory and practice for a comprehensive public administration education with an emphasis in problem solving, leadership through service to others, management strategies, and critical thinking. Classes are available at seven campus locations in Colorado and online.
